I remember Sis Mildred having us over her house on Sunday after church when they lived in Geneva Indiana. We loved her and Bro Tommy. I would get on the piano and Tommy get his guitar and we sung and had a good time. Regina was with us and we were like a family. We are praying for you all. We would have been there if I was OK to travel but I can't travel very far right now. Keep in touch. Sis Mildred was a great influence on our lives. She preached a sermon and titled it "The Spirit makes the difference" Lord heaven sure is sounding sweeter all the time
