“ Carole and John,
We are sad with you today to be separated from your precious Mom. You have been a good, loving, and very attentive daughter, Carole, and have been there with her throughout her illness traveling thousands of miles to be by her side. Mildred was blessed to have such a loving daughter. You will miss her but as with the departure of my mother, I just tried to replace that achey heart with fond memories and there are many. You also have many. May you be uplifted by the loving stories you hear during this time of visitation and know the joy God has given you in blessing you with such a wonderful mother. We love you, Barbara & James(Psalm116:15
