

Myrtle Lucy Davis

March 30, 2021

Myrtle Lucille Dills Davis Passed away in Dundalk, Maryland on December 29, 2020 at the age of 85. Known to many as “Lucy”, she was born in Cedar Bluff, Virginia. Married in 1952 to Raymond L. Davis, she began traveling the United States and the world as a military wife while raising three daughters, Pamela Naplachowski, Sharon Mech and the late Karen Howland. Lucy later became an active member of the Dundalk Disabled American Veterans Ladies Auxiliary Unit 21 and served at the state level as the DAVA State Commander in 1989-90. She was truly an unsung hero in her dedication to helping the disabled Veterans of our country. She enjoyed welcoming six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren into the world and never lost her thrill of traveling and visiting new places. She will be missed beyond measure. In addition to her children and grandchildren, she is survived by her brother, John Dills, of Princeton, West Virginia. Funeral services were held in Dundalk, Maryland on January 2, 2021.
