“ Aunt Nay, What can I say to even come close to how loved you and Uncle Cecil made me, and everyone who entered your home feel. Some of my fondest childhood memories are at your and Uncle Cecil's home.. There was always room for one more at your table; but most of all a feeling of love and acceptance. You will always have a special place in my heart. May God give your family strength to carry on what you have bestowed on them. RIP sweet Lady.

“ Maw you will always be in our hearts. Such a loving mother-in-law We made so many precious memories on our many trips to the doctors offices, Long John Silvers and yard sales. You showed such unconditional love to so many. I thank God for allowing us to laugh, cry, visit and share special times together. Our loss is heavens gain today. Love forever....Lorraine

“ Walking into maws house was always a sense of "home". Like something out of a Hallmark movie; always the smell of fresh home cooked corn bread off a wood fired cook stove. As a loving grandmother she always made sure the grandkids had something special on the holidays even if it was at a personnal scrafice. We love you maw and thank you for making sure we all grew up "country"...
