I worked for the News Press and was in William's every week for a while collecting there. Mrs. Elkins was always so nice and friendly and always had a smile for me. She was one special lady and will be missed by many who knew and loved her.

“ You may not know me, but I wanted to express my sympathy to the family for your loss. Many will say to you, God needed another angel, it was their time to go, and it is understood that words don't come easy at a time like this. Rather, I wish to extend God's words to you found at Psalms 36:7... "How precious your loving kindness is, Oh God! And in the shadow of your wings the sons of men themselves take refuge". I would love to mail you a free brochure entitled "When Someone You Loves Dies", it has helped many people find comfort from the Bible. If you would like a copy you may email me at: shawnehurd@hotmail.com. Again, my deepest apologies for your loss.

“ At peace and resting, rejoicing in her reunion with Bubby, Daddy, and all the rest.

Take care of my babies, mom, just like you said you would! I hope that where you are still puts that pretty expression on your face like it did when you left us, whatever you saw, I look forward to seeing it too!! I am so glad we had the time together these last months, it means more than anything to me, no money can ever buy it and no person can ever take it away!! I hope I did everything that you asked me to, and I will continue to do what you said, as you said. I will never let you go! We love you, we miss you, but we know you are here in spirit!!!!

“ *Karen and Family,
I am so sorry to learn of your Mothers' passing. It is hard giving them up...I know the hurt you are feeling. I found comfort in the following that I found somewhere on the internet:*

When someone we love passes on beyond life in the world that we know and is gone, a beautiful sense of their presence, like music remembered by heart, lingers on. When someone we love finds a wonderful home in a world only faith can reveal, our memories can be like a song in the heart with the power to comfort and heal. May God's Grace give you the faith that brings peace of mind and the hope that washes all sadness away and heal your broken hearts. Only God can help you through these times today, and the days ahead. May God Bless you and comfort you each and everyday.

I will have you in my thoughts and prayers!

*Love,
Jane Ellen*
