“ For all those that sent a message to the family, it is appreciated. My mother worked very hard with the church through most of my life. It appeared that many loved her greatly at the churches we attended. She enjoyed working with young people and many times got into as much trouble as we did. I recall a time that she made some Cinnamon Hard Candy and shared it with many of us in church. However, some got the cinnamon on the hands, wiped their eyes, and boy the tears flowed. Some even went outside and wiped their hands in the grass to get rid of the cinnamon from their hands.

“ My sympathy to the family of Ruth. Even though I've been away from the area almost 50 years, I have memories of your family. Our mother, Alice Price Beavers was so fond of Ruth and Charlie. May God give you peace at this time.
