“ Norma was a loving, kind, caring person who was was never without a smile. She was a lovely human being who never had a harsh unkind word for anyone. She made a positive impact on the life of my daughter Amelia and I. I worked with her for a bit at Kroger and we lost touch. Years later I ran into her with her grandson one day. She was so proud, talking about all of her sons, their wives, and her grandchildren. She was the same person I knew all those years ago with nothing but kindness and joy. While it is sad to hear of her passing, I know she is in Heaven, free and happy...and smiling! Prayers to all her family!
