“Lucy, Kenneth and All Family Members: We were so saddened to hear of the passing of your dear Oma. My four siblings and I grew up with Oma, Ivan and Jerry. We each have so many fond memories of those precious times. Our parents, Nathan and Grethel, admired and respected Preacher Lee and Maxine so very much.

We are praying for a peace that surpasses all understanding; knowing that Jesus will supply all your needs. The many, many fond memories that you have will give each of you many opportunities to smile and laugh again in the days ahead.

Love and Prayers:

*Lela Graham
Denny, Jean, Rodney, Dewayne
and Danny (Lela's husband) who also knew the family well*

“We became really great friends in high school. Did know her before then. We kinda lost touch after we married and having our families. I thought of Oma often. What a great friend and wonderful person she was. We did see each other quite often when we were working and dating but after a few years it became less. I loved your. She was a valuable friend in my life and I will never forget her. She was a blessing in my life. ❤️🙏🙏🙏 to all the family Bobbie
