So sorry to hear this I meet Pam a few years ago at Lynn's tanning place at Hill Creek. Pam was a lovely, cheerful, friendly lady I enjoyed talking with her when she came there. I know she will surely be missed by all that knew and loved her. Prayers for her family.

“ Pam has been my friend since we were kids. She was a special person , she had a contagious smile that lit up her whole face. We sort of lost touch for several years and then I had the privilege of seeing her almost every year at the Pig Roast. She was my sweet friend whom I loved. RIP, I know there was a glorious reunion with her son when she entered Heaven's gates. Praying for the entire family. May God bless you with comfort and peace. Pat and Jerry Warner

I love each of you and will remember you in my prayers.
