“ No doubt many people have expressed words such as "It was for the best", or "It was God's will". But, trying to find something positive about death is not always easy to the family who is grieving, like you are. I myself will not tell you I understand, because I can't imagine the pain you are feeling right now. So, finding the right words to say is difficult. That is why I wanted to take the time and allow God's words to comfort you.

The Bible assures us at (Psalms 34:18) that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Isn't that a beautiful thought? Yes, He is near to you right now. No doubt, you have communicated to God, who is called the "Hearer of prayer" at (Psalms 65:2). Not only does He want us to throw our burdens upon Him, but he also has the power to sustain us. (Psalms 55:22) Jehovah God can and will equip you with "power beyond what is normal" to cope with your loss from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7)

There is a brochure entitled - When Someone You Love Dies, and it has proven beneficial to many who have lost loved ones in death. If you would like a free copy, email me or leave a message at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses (276-988-2330). Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I have known Pansy since I was a young child and I lived up the street from her. I used to sneak away from my house and run off to her house where I would spend many hours with her and Clyde. She also brought me to church with her when it was in Pounding Mill at Camp Evangel. I remember her and the Teglers and Mrs. Geary very well with fond memories. I was unable to make it to see her when I was home visiting my grandmother this year, but the last time I was in, I stopped by with two of my children. It had been many years since I had seen her, and when she opened the door, she looked at me and said "I would know your smile anywhere! Come on in Lynette." We spent a couple of wonderful hours there with her and when I returned back to New Hampshire she sent me a beautiful letter that I have packed away and will now cherish.

While I know that we here on earth will miss her, I do know that with her faith and love for the Lord, that heaven has certainly gained a beautiful angel.

“ We miss you Mom-Maw. Your smile will never be forgotten. Neither will your unselfish, caring and giving to those who needed a meal, a smile or someone to visit and talk to. Always thinking of others. Always trusting God with a positive outlook. Even in hard times she remained strong, a smile still on her face, and a prayer on her lips. I have many happy memories of visiting her as a child. From her large garden, home made apple sauce and waking up to the smell of biscuits and gravy. I could go on and on. A great life lived by a great woman. You will always be in our hearts. We love you Mom-Maw and Pop-Paw. Love, Dave, Marianne and Kellianne

“ Thinking of your family. I have wonderful memories of being neighbors with Brenda, Danny, and Lonnie and your mom and dad. Good visits when you lived out in the country. My sister, Peggy saw the notice in the Bristol paper and emailed me. Brenda, she said you now live in Richlands. Mom lives w/ me and will be 92 in July. Would love to hear from you. My thoughts are w/ you.

“ I was saddened to learn of Pansy's passing. She was a dear dear friend, as well as cousin, of my mother, Millicent Vincent. Mother spoke of her so often with such affection. My mother passed into the presence of our Lord in 2005 ... I imagine she and Pansy's spirits are united in the glorious afterlife we all seek.

“ We love all of you so much. Aunt Pansy taught us so much about living in loving. She always saw the good and was always so kind. She took care of so many people by driving them to the store or visiting in the hospital - always so giving. I learned so much about how to live a Christian life through her example. Like Mother Teresa: we give Jesus when we do small deeds with great love. And Aunt Pansy did.
