“ Ms Patsy always loved to visit with my folk's (Sandra and Jim McCleary) twin nieces. They always put a big smile on her face. They loved bringing her the mail. She was quite a lady. I was blessed to know her.

“ It's been many years since we all went to church together at Bethel but, I will always remember how precious and kind Patsy was to everyone she met! I know she will be dearly missed by each of you. May God wrap his arms around you all and give you the comfort and strength you need for the days to come.
