“ Paul Fox, I called him Papa! He was my second dad and has been in my life for 40 years! I would have been lost without him. Papa was always there for me and my family! Papa knew my husbands grandparents and he is the reason I met my husband, Eric! Papa even walked me down the aisle when Eric and I got married! Papa was a loving grandfather to our two children, Danielle and Nick! Papa cooked some awesome eggs for Danielle and was great playing lightsaber with Nick! Eric can remember Papa being at their family events when he was a little boy! Papa even came up with Eric's nickname: Chet! Such loving memories that go on and on! We will miss you but are glad you are in a peaceful place now! I'm not sure what the stray animals on earth are going to do without you to take them in but I know when they are in heaven they will find your door! We will miss you and cherish the memories in our hearts! Love you Papa!
