“ I had met Wayne when he worked at Rameys. When I needed a new vehicle I always went to him. He was such a wonderful and nice person. He had a wonderful personality that made you feel relaxed and he went that extra mile to help you. He was the type of person that once you met him you never forgot him. He had that impact on me with his friendliness and outgoing personality. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Heaven has gained another angel. My thoughts and prayers go out to you, his family. May God wrap his loving arms around you and comfort and guide you through this terrible time!

“ *Tommy,
Wayne and I traveled with Hard Knocks, making music in the bars and clubs and having fun bein young. I remember all the good times we had and will always cherish those memories. The best thing of all is that I plan oon seeing Wayne again when I get to heaven.
Thank God we both accepted the Blood of Christ in this life.
May God bless all of you during this time, and know that I will truly “ Dearest Jenn and your family,

The memories and stories of your dad have made this journey so personal for all of us on the Caring Bridge. My heart breaks for you and your sister, but knowing you... and the personal grace and strength you inherited from your father... will increase your commitment to your profession. As I have told you before, you are a very special individual and the path you have chosen will allow your patients to realize the unique gift you bring to their care. Blessings to you and your family, dear one. Raise a cup of coffee and toast the great life you celebrated with your dad!!
