“ I'd just want to express my sympathy and to say that Phyllis was a special person in my life, I've lived here for 20 years and she's always been like my 2nd mom.
I'll never forget her smile and warmth,
her biscuits and gravy and fried potatoes.
Phyllis treated everyone with love and I know she's going to be missed in the home.
Heaven is even greater now that she's there.
Keep striving to serve the Lord, cause she has saved a place at the table, waiting on her family to come home.
May the Lord give you all peace and strength
Many Prayers
Mary
