“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of beareavement. I didn't get to meet Ralph. But I have known Nita and her family most of my life. If she loved him,then he must have been a special person. I will continue to pray for your family as a whole(you and your boys). You know God,and he will see you through. It's going to be one of the hardest thing you'll have to go through. Remember God has sent his angel to hold you and be with you. Ralph will always be with you in your boys and blessed memories. If you need anything,I know I live a distance away. But if you need to talk I'm only a text away. Anytime.

“ My cousins growing up were like siblings... we played, faught, got into mischief and often jumped out if the upper loft of the barn together as a dare.... today Ralphie, the baby in this pic went to heaven and I haven't seen him in years. But like most family members he's still as I remember he was as a little cousin... forever young. Forever in my heart. RIP little cousin.
