“ *My dearest Randall
Today 12 years ago my world changed forever, pretty sure it stopped for a while, some days it still stops. Life gets harder every day and as the years go by they also get a little more rough. Seems like it's been 100 years since I've heard your voice, seen your face but I seen and hear them every day. Every day is still a struggle. Thank you for being with Eli when he was sick, I know he's your hero in so many ways. He's a sick little boy, please God and you keep him safe please.. I just wanted you to know how much you are missed and loved.. Until we meet again i.love you more than words can be said..*

*You have my heart forever
Love
Dinna*

“ *My Dearest Randall
I know you're all smiles today greeting your mom at the gates, I'm sure there was a smile on your face. Every day is still hard cause you're not here with us. There's so much has changed here but I'm sure you know. Thank you for being with Eli during his surgery, thank you for always being with me. I hold you in my heart, I love you and miss you everyday. Someday we will see each other again.*

“ Hello Dear.

Another year has come and gone and the pain is just as real as the day you left us,, Your granddaughter gets more beautiful every day but you know that you watch over us every day..i wish you was here to help me raise her and watch her grow but i know God has bigger plans for you in heaven but that doesn't make it easier the only thing that makes it easy is i know you are no longer suffering ..i think of you every day and tell you good night just before i fall to sleep and i tell you i love you to..if i could only hear your voice and hold you once again someday until then I love you see you soon

Love Donna
