“ Raymond and our father Jim Richardson were big buds. Those guys shared bunches of stories and a whole lot of smoke! Jim cigars and Raymond cigarettes -- they did it their way. Got to respect them. Both sadly missed.

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of Raymond. I got to know him while I was working at Revco/CVS Pharmacy. He was such a pleasure and very pleasant gentleman to know. He was so kind to me and very respectful. Every time he would come in there he would tell me and joke and say where is the tip jar because he wanted to give me five. I will never forget him...I know Heaven has a pure angel up there. I hope to see him again one day. God bless the family is my prayer. Love to all of you.
