“ May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today. At this time of sorrow may these truths sustain you.....your loved one will always be as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ I was got to meet Reba in Richmond. She was a cook at the Rehab Center for the Blind in 1984. She was always friendly with me. She always told me that she would bring home on some weekend when she came to Tazewell to visit her family. She was a sweet person. I thought the world of her. I often think of her. She used to talk to me about my dad and that comfort me a lot while I was at the Rehab Center for the Blind. I talked with Dorothy Little this morning about her. I just had to know if that was the same Reba that worked at the Rehab Center for the Blind or not. I am sure that she is an angel in heaven now. God is watching over now. I am sorry to hear of her passing. You all are in my prayers. May God be with you all!
