“ A beautiful, precious lady that put her love of God first, her family second and her friends next, herself last. She's not suffering anymore. Loved this lady.

“ Regina was one of the strongest women I know. She always put others before herself. Her love for and trust in God was her passion. There was never a day we spoke that her faith in God was not mentioned. I cried for the loss of her but I smile because I can just hear her say, "If you could see where I am now, you wouldn't cry." Love you all. It was my blessing to know this precious lady.
