“ Clyde was a very sweet man whom cared so much for everyone he met. When my mother and father were in the hospital, he would go see them and pray for them. He went to see my mother a week before she passed away and she was saved. I will dearly miss you Clyde. The prayers of my family go out to his family.

“ What a void will be left with Clyde's absence. But oh, how much sweeter heaven is with his arrival! To know this family is to love them and Margaret, your family is loved by so many. Clyde will be sorely missed at CVMC and he has left some mighty big shoes to be filled.

If we can help you at this time of sadness, we're here.

“ I have fond memories of always greeting Clyde--whether it was in the hospital while visiting folks, at the post office getting our mail, or just passing each other along the street. He always had a kind word and some exhortation to press on in serving our blessed Master and Savior. Clyde was an encouragement to me to press on in seeing that Jesus is honored in my life, as far as that is possible. I think of John Newton and his great hymn of praise, "Amazing Grace" when I recall my friend Clyde Ball--

*Thro' many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.*
