“ Robert had many friends during his incarceration.. We send our condolences to his family. Robert was a good man who befriended all those whom he shared time with. He had two favorite pastimes: Playing Double Solitaire and putting together puzzles. He became an excellent cake maker sharing all but one piece with others; especially those who had no support from the outside. He attended church services every chance he had. We love him and miss him very much.

“ I remember BOBBY as a great caring and fun type of guy. I still remember the " wolf man costume " Bobby would dress in at Halloween at PERMAC JOB. HE would go around scaring the workers ..a good laugh. I never will forget the time Bobby hid behind a bar in the office and jr. Lowe came in to drop off the reports from the plant that night . BOBBY JUMPED UP FROM BEHIND THE BAR AND JR. WENT DOWN TO HIS KNEES ! HE LATER SAID IT LOOKED LIKE THE DEVIL HAD COME UP FROM THE GROUND TO GET HIM ! WE ALL CRIED AND LAUGHED SO HARD MEMORIES OF THE DAYS AT PERMAC!

“ SO SAD TO HEAR OF BOBBY'S PASSING;
ANOTHER PERMAC BROTHER GONE . I
WAS FORTUNATE TO HAVE WORKED
WITH BOBBY MANY YEARS WTH PERMAC
INC. SO MANY HAVE LEFT US ; SOOOO
SAD, BUT THIS IS OUR PURPOSE IN LIFE , TO BE BORN AND LIVE FROM THERE UNTIL GOD CALLS US HOME.
CONDOLENCES TO HIS FAMILYAND ESPECIALLY TO BRUCE HIS CLOSE BROTHER . R,I.P. BOBBY , YOU WILL ALWAYS HAVE A PAGE IN OUR LIVES OF THE PERMAC FAMILY

“ Bobby worked for me during my days as a supervisor at Permac. He was a hard worker, a team player and you could count on him to show up. God Bless the family in this loss.
