“ The memory of David Price is indelibly etched in my memory. As a co-worker in the military he was more than a comrade, he was a mentor. David stood tall among those who knew him. He was the epitomy of character and demonstrated the qualities so desperately needed in men today. Refusing to compromise his principles and beliefs he practiced what he taught and would always tell it like it was. David added to my life. He was a true friend and I'm saddened by his death.

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to his wonderful wife Margaret.
