

Robert Eugene "Bob" Stallard

January 6, 1948 - January 29, 2013

Robert Eugene "Bob" Stallard, age 65, received the eternal reward he longed for when he passed away Tuesday, January 29, 2013, at Tazewell Community Hospital. He was a resident of Tazewell, Virginia for over 40 years after spending his formative years in Bandy, Virginia and graduating from Richlands High School in 1967, where his artwork still adorns the gymnasium wall. He was born on January 6, 1948, (a birthday he proudly shared in 2004 with his grandson Gage) in Amonate, West Virginia to Edsel Eugene and Emma Lou Stallard, who preceded him in death.

He was previously employed by US Steel and then Consolidation Coal Company as a draftsman until ill health forced an early retirement. He was a gifted artist and enjoyed playing golf, drawing and painting, reading, writing his words of wisdom to pass on to his children, visiting with family and friends, and attending church. He was a man of great faith who studied his Bible and steadfastly trusted God's promises. He was a member of Bandy Freewill Baptist Church for many years where he enjoyed singing gospel music as a part of the Master's Men and other gospel ensembles; more recently he attended City on a Hill Church in Cedar Bluff.

He is survived by one son, Robert E. "Bobby" Stallard, II and wife, Marjorie, of Bluefield, Virginia; one daughter, Beth Stallard Jackson and husband, Rick of Bluefield, Virginia; one sister, Leona Brewster and husband, Jim of Tazewell and their daughter Kimberly of Redlands, California. He was the proud and adoring grandfather of five grandchildren, Gabi Jackson, Gage Jackson, Riley Stallard, Robert Stallard, III and Ryan Siders. He is also survived by his former spouse, Connie Tolley of Roanoke, Virginia.

Funeral services for Robert Eugene “Bob” Stallard will be conducted at 3:00 pm on Friday, February 1, 2013 at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Chapel in Richlands, Virginia with Barry Absher officiating. Friends may call Friday afternoon from 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm at Hurst-Scott Funeral Home; 1401 Second Street; Richlands, Virginia. In keeping with his wishes, the body will be cremated with interment at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to City on a Hill, P. O. Box 189; Cedar Bluff, Virginia 24609.

Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia is in charge of the arrangements and those wishing to express sympathy online may do so at www.hurstscottfuneralhomes.com

“ *Stallard Family,
Please accept my deep heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your loved one. May the God of Comfort be with each of you during this most difficult time. May the resurrection hope sustain you , "For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he want to." (John 5:21) As we patiently wait on seeing those sleeping in death again, I hope all the wonderful memories that were shared help you get thru the days ahead. Warm Christian Love*

Beth, Bobby, Sis and Jim

Words can't begin to tell you how much Bob's friendship and love meant to our whole family. We considered him family, we are going to miss him so much, just talked to him a couple of weeks ago and he seemed to be feeling better. He surely loved his Children and grandchildren and his friends. I know without a doubt that he is dancing in Heaven on those new feet he now has. He never talked to us that he didn't tell us he loved us and was praying for our family everyday. May God richly bless and comfort you is our prayer for your family. Much love & friendship to you. The Warner family. Jerry, Pat, Jerry J., Aerial, Tammy & Luke.
