“ Teresa and family
I am so sad to hear that my sweet cousin has passed away. I just found out today. I'm still praying for you and all the family that God will give you peace and comfort during this sad time of mourning a loved one. I love you all very much. I will miss his picking on me in a loving way when I c I come to Tennessee.

“ My sympathy is expressed to all of Roger's family. I remember Roger well from our growing up days in the Wardell/Paint Lick area. The Helton's home and land bordered onfour family's farm. Roger always seemed to be a good fellow. As I remember, he helped a few times in putting up hay on our family farm. May he enjoy eternal rest. Sincerely, Charlie Steele

“ To the family of Roger Helton,
Our thoughts and Prayers are with you in the passing of your loved one. We certainly understand your grief and sadness as our dear brother went to Heaven 11/15/2022 and the grief of his vacancy here on earth continues to be great! Not only are we relatives of Roger and his family but we grew up living in the same community them. He will be missed by all who knew him, but mostly by you, who loved and depended on him so much! We Pray he did not suffer!
