

Ronald Wayne Puckett, II

June 5, 1980 - July 25, 2025

Ronald “Ron” Wayne Puckett, II, of the Pea Patch area of Buchanan County, Virginia, passed away on Friday, July 25, 2025.

Ronald was born on June 5, 1980, in Richlands, Virginia, and was the son of Margaret Brown Puckett of Pea Patch, Virginia, and the late Ronald Wayne Puckett. He was a 1999 graduate of Whitewood High School and worked as a cross-country tractor trailer driver and heavy equipment operator.

He was married to the love of his life, Karen “Kay” Sparks Puckett. They shared a strong faith and enjoyed attending and visiting churches together throughout the area.

Ron was a gifted musician who could play just about any stringed instrument, but his true love was the banjo—“banjer,” as he called it. He proudly owned a Gibson “Earl Scruggs” model banjo autographed by Scruggs himself at SPBGMA. Though it was his prized possession, Ron believed his instruments were made to be played, not just displayed-and he played it beautifully. Earl Scruggs would have been proud.

In addition to his father, Ron was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Garland Hale and Ethel “Gay” Rife Hale; his maternal grandparents, Clyde Dennis Brown and Helen Margaret Snyder Brown; two uncles, Ernest Breeden and Lowell Breeden; and two aunts, Mona Jean Wagner and Betty Jo Sloan.

Ron is survived by:

His Devoted Wife, Karen “Kay” Sparks Puckett of Pea Patch

Mother: Margaret Puckett of Pea Patch

Sisters:

Kelly Goodman and husband, D.R. of Pounding Mill, Virginia

Kathy Cole and husband, Rocky of Whitewood, Virginia

Nieces and nephew whom he loved as his own:

Miriam Burniston and husband, Thomas of Portsmouth, NH; Emily Goodman of Pounding Mill, Virginia; and Rachel Acosta of Rosedale, Virginia; Cainan Goodman of Rosedale, Virginia

Great Nephew, Bowen “Bo” Goodman, the pride and joy of the family

Stepson, Austin Sparks

Stepdaughter, Helena Hicks

Stepgrandchildren:

Adam Justice, III, Colton Lane Justus, and Dawson Blake Justus

Uncles: AC Breeden and wife, Leslie of Madisonville, KY; Dennis Brown and wife, Beatrice of Orlando, FL; and aunts, Cheryl Rife and husband, Ray of Cedar Bluff, Virginia; Sue Breeden of Pea Patch; Peggy Breeden of Kimbolton, OH and a host of beloved cousins.

“ I will never forget meeting Ron and Kay. He came to my uncle's house and played music and sang for hours. I'm so sorry for the your loss but I know that he was ready for Jesus as that was all we talked about during that time as well. We will meet him again once day and the way things are going on this world, it may be sooner than we know. Praise God, be with those who need you right now and wrap them in your loving arms.

“ I have been trying to type this for hours now but I'm so lost for words but here it goes... Ron honestly was there for me and David so much, Him and Kaye would show up rain or shine always! I loved when he would come out to the house and pick at his guitar and sing and talk about God with us! I'm thankful that I got to know you, and I'm so grateful for the many prayers you sent up for me and David.. RIP Brother your going to be missed so much
