“ I loved Doctor Wright. He took care of all of my cats. He's the reason my cat Sebastian is now 21 years old. A few years back Sebastian had a bladder blockage at midnight and was screaming in pain. Doctor Wright came to his office at midnight and helped him out and I will always be grateful. He was a great vet and a kind man. I will miss him.

Roy has been a great blessing to us, encouraging us in our work in a faraway land over the past several years. We have enjoyed his company and generosity at his home twice as we spent time in Abingdon Presbytery telling what God is doing in Ethiopia. Our sincere wishes for peace go to the family, who I am sure will feel his absence deeply. And, Dorothy, will find time to come or call or at least email soon. “ I am beyond saddened to learn of Dr. Wright's passing. He has to come to the rescue of my countless fur babies, both dogs and cats, over the past 30 years and has comforted and reassured me so many times for which I will forever be grateful to him. He has managed to get smiles through my tears on many occasions. I remember taking a cat in that I had been taking in every few days as it had already had a stroke and I had been feeding it by a dropper and it had had a second stroke and had gotten to the point that it was no longer able to swallow and I knew it was the right thing (although a heartbreaking thing for me) to have it put to sleep. I was standing there crying and I asked Dr. Wright what was wrong with me that I kept taking in strays when my heart kept getting broken over and over when eventually they would die. He smiled at me and said "broken hearts will always mend, its the hard hearted ones that don't." Although I have shed a lot of tears in his Grundy Office over the years, I have had a lot of laughs with him, Robin, Shawna and Crystal. He will always hold a special place in my heart and I know that I am one of the very many that will miss him so very much. I will be praying for Robin, Shawna, Crystal and all Dr. Wright's family over the upcoming weeks.

*Dr. Wright was a great man and veterinarian! He has taken care of our dogs for years and just lately saved one's life. He sure will be missed.
