“ Royal was our friend in hard times and good times we grew up together and went to school together and were cousins as well. I wish I had know he passed away I am so sorry to here this we lost touch after he mover to Richlands' once after he moved there we ran into him shopping and he was so proud of his blue truck he had to show it to John and I. I would like to know where he was buried? I am so sorry girls for the loss of your brother. Loving friends Linnie and John Hurd of Hurley, Va.

“ This is from Royal's sister Deborah.
She remembers the good times that she had with her "Pal" Royal.
She remembers the time that Royal scavenged parts from the other peoples trash and made her a bicycle.
She also remembers the times in Michigan that they collected and sold aluminum cans to buy treats, as well as the time that Royal scavenged an old Christmas tree and decorated it for the family.
She and Royal also attended Tiger Stadium to watch the Detroit Tigers.
Royal was, and still is loved for the good and thoughtful brother that he was... He will be missed.

“ This is Gloria Bandy, Grant ,Royal's older sister. I always loved visiting with him. He was special to me. When I saw him two weeks ago, he was looking good and was happy for the presents he received at Christmas . Royal loved to joke with everyone and he loved his birds. He also loved Delores, He considered her his daughter. She has been there for him the past two years when he needed her. We were blessed to have her help and do all she did to help Royal.

“ This is Marti Smith (Berry & Gloria Grant's daughter and Neice to Royal). When I was littled I loved hanging out with my uncle royal. He loved puzzles and I loved his laugh. He always loved taking the time to talk and explore with me as a kid, I thought that was great. Over the last ten years I haven't had a chance to see him much (due to where I live) but I do have fond memories of him. I will post a picture of him and I that I cherish when I get home. He will be missed but I'm glad that he will be with Grandpa Burton Bandy in Heaven. All my love, Marti Smith
