“ Jessica and family, I really don't know where to start to give you any advice, cause it is so hard to loose loved ones. Nor can I tell your family how long it will be before that hurt, and burning felling in your heart will leave, cause I'm yet to find out. You can only take it one day at a time, and know your loved one has got to be in a better place. Jessica I know it was hard for you to watch the cd that Jeff Hurst made for me of Freddie, but honey believe me you will cherish it, watch it over and over and cry just as much, but crying helps, and seeing the pictures will bring back laughter and tears, but most of all alot of memories, and for that you will be thankful, and it will mean so much more to you than flowers or cards, not that you won.t appreciate those too, but the cd will give you so much happiness and sadness. If there is anything else I can do for you please let me know. If I can handle it, I'll try to be at the funeral for you all. Just remember I'm here for you and your family and my prayers and thoughts are with you all at this sad time. Love You,

“ Uncle Sam will certainly be missed. I am so sorry my children did not get the chance to enjoy him. I will never forget the last time I got to visit and he was well, when he played the harmonica and sang "I am using my Bible for a roadmap." It took all of his effort, but he insisted on doing it anyway. Love and prayers to all of you.
