“ Mr. Robinette was an exceptional person that will be deeply missed by everyone, especially all in our neighborhood. Our family, especially our granddaughters, will truly miss him. We always look forward to just stopping by and talking with them. The granddaughters always took time to give him a hug when they were leaving. He was a fine man who took time out for everyone he knew. We look forward to the day we can once again be with him in Heaven, just to sit down to have our good talks once again.
