“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Sandra was one of my favorite customers when I worked at F&M. She always had a smile on her face and could make the saddest person around smile. Heaven has truly gain a beautiful angel.

“ My aunt was a beautiful and loving person. Even though I live so far away she was always a phone call away. I knew the last few months her body was getting tired of fighting. Her faith in God gave her hope and strength to fight the battle as long as she did. I know it made her happy to see her son get married and have children before she passed. Being with her grandchildren made her hardest days more bearable. The love her husband and her had for each other was undeniable. My uncle Pablo took care of her and held her hand while she took her last breath. I will forever have fond memories of my Aunt Sandy and she will always be in my heart. Going home to Virginia to visit will never be the same. Rest in peace my beautiful heavenly angel. ❤️ you always your niece Vivian

“ Our sincere condolences & prayers to the family. Sandy, as we called her was like a sister growing up. So many laughs over our families hunting adventures in which Sandy had to prepare her Dad for. Sandy always made sure everyone was taken care of. She will be missed.

“ To my Sissy, I never doubted your illness or how sick you were as some did. I loved you dearly as I know you loved Gomer & I. You had little but what you had you would give freely to others. You had such a kind and loving nature. I won't say good bye but just til we meet again. Prayers for Pab, Pablo and your family. You will be greatly missed, my friend.
