“ I am heartbroken at the passing of my sister Sandy. We spent too little time together but I have some great memories of visits to her mountain home. One thing that stands out is my father's refusal to drive the road to her house and Winnifred having to come to drive us. Also remember Sandy cooking biscuits and gravy for breakfast for this Jersey boy who had never had it. My sympathies to all her family and friends. Love you always Sister.

“ To my Loving Sister I will miss you so much, my heart is breaking. I know you are not in pain anymore. I have cried till you wouldn't think there would be any tears left, but they just won't stop flowing. I know you are rejoicing now, you tell our loved ones hi for us, and I pray to see you all again one day.
