“ To Matt and every other member of Katie's family... I have such good memories of Katie from many years ago, and we also talked a lot over the past few years. What a fun (and funny) person she was, but also very loving and caring. I'll miss talking with her. She had a deep trust in God and touched the lives of many people around her, in spite of how she was often hurt by others. What a good genuine friend.
