“ I would like to say how sorry I am for this loss. My friend Sheila spoke very highly of Shelby . I didn't know her but I felt as if I did because of all the wonderful things I was told. She was known to be a wonderful kind and generous person. She will be so missed here on earth but so accepted in Heaven. We are known by him by the love and compassion we have shown to others and she will be on first name basis's with the Master. My heart cries for you but rejoice's for her.

“ I spend most of yesterday evening thinking about when my "big sister" Shelby didn't mind a brat of a three year tagging along behind her. I remember that as we grew up Shelby always had that great smile and sense of humor about her. Everytime we would see each other it was "hi little sis". When every tragic struck my life she was always one of the first there to see if she could help. I pay homage to this wonderful person who always had so much love about her. Ann, Jerry, Steve and Shelby's children my love and prayers are with each of you. Thro each of us have lost a jewel; heaven has gained a diamond. I see her now in heaven telling everyone how much she has missed them; and catching them up on the latest news.

“ As I search through my memories of what little time I spent with this wonderful woman I remember most her laugh and that radiating smile. She has a sense of humor that could make the most proper roar with laughter. My recollection of her is based on how she treated me. The step-child of her brother. But Shelby never acted as if I didn't belong. I know she had big heart and lots of love to share, she showed me that much. The journey through life can lead us in many different directions. Once again a family will reunite and come together in memory of such a wonderful woman who loved her husband, her mother, her brothers, her children, her grandchildren and her Lord. I can just see her embracing her Father as they walk together beside the Lord on the streets of Heaven overlooking the crystal sea. The thing that is hardest in a moment of loss is the fact that Shelby would want laughter and love during this time a time of remembrance. With my deepest sympathies.
