“ *The morning Shelia Gay was born, I went by her house going to the grade school on the hill. My Mother stopped at her house and I went on to school. When school was over that day I could hardly wait to go by and meet baby Shelia. She was always one of my little sisters. I loved her so much and know she is so very happy in heaven. RIP dear one. We have many great memories of Shelia and her gracious family when we came to visit our mamaw/papaw for our summer vacations in Newhall. Shelia was a fun, adventurous and kind spirit. Godspeed Shelia. Love you a ton.
