“ Can't imagine what it's going to be like not having her around. She's been part of my life since 1980s. We've been through some exciting situations. We've laughter a lot of laughs, and cried a lot of tears together, we been each other's rock when we needed someone to lean on, and each other's strength when we needed to be strong. Her family became my family, I finally had brothers and a sister. There's another void that canner be replaced. My God comfot and give the family the strength they need to get through this heart breaking time. Love each of you and I hold you close in my heart .
