

Shirley Ann Shelton

May 9, 1937 - December 2, 2021

Shirley Ann “Hogey” Shelton, of Richlands, VA, was born May 9, 1937. She was the daughter of the late Herman F. and Lena Belle Houchins Shelton. Following a lengthy illness, she went to her eternal home on Thursday, December 2, 2021, being 84 years of age.

Shirley was a devout Christian, with a matchless sense of humor, who was loved by many. She loved her Lord more than anything. In her early years, she was employed by the Dollar General. She also evangelized and attended revivals across the United States for years. After that, she spent most of her life sacrificing and caring for those in her family. She loved both deeply and fiercely. Shirley was a member of the Hill Creek Pentecostal Holiness Church most of her life, and she was also involved in the Fountain of Joy and Charity Full Gospel Assembly.

In addition to her parents, Shirley is preceded in death by one sister, Linda Darnell Jackson; one brother, Herman Edward Shelton; and three special nephews, Scotty Joyce, Marvin Messer and David Mitchell.

Those who survive include:

Four Nieces:

Penny Shortridge and husband, Brandon of the home

Ciji Jackson of Richlands, VA
Sandra Griffith and husband, Roy of Raven, VA
Brandi Nicole Madison of Baltimore, MD

Special Great Nephew, Tyler Joyce of the home
Special Great Niece, Brittney Puckett of the home

Nephew, Darryl Messer and wife, Phyllis of Swords Creek, VA

A host of friends and neighbors also survive.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to MSA Home Health and Hospice, especially Paula Slate, for the wonderful care that they provided for Shirley over the last seven months.

“ Words cannot express the heartbreak I feel right now...Sister Shirley was a true woman of God. I grew up under her and Sister Thelma Ball's teaching and preaching and I cannot find another place that I got fed or blessed as I did then. Those two reunited together in Heaven, wow slot of singing and shouting going on. To the family and friends I am truly sorry, you will be in my thoughts and prayers...
