“ Shirley was a Wonderful friend I didn't know of her passing until right now when I read it in the paper. So sorry that i missed saying Good-bye. The world has lost a wonderful friend and coworker. My mom and I loved Shirley so much and the love was returned many times over the past years. I lost my Mom a year ago in Aug. I don't know if it gets easier or not because it hasn't for me yet. IT HELPS knowing what a Good person your Mom was. Shirley had a better place to go too where she has no more pain in her feet and legs and her breathing will not be so difficult for her. I looked at her one day at work and before I knew it I called her Mom, I told her I was sorry but she said not to worry about it. I told her if I didn't have a Mom I would pick her. She just smiled and said I could call her that any time I wanted to. I just want to say: Miss Shirley, I Love you and will Miss you so very,very much. The world has lost a special Lady but Heaven has Welcomed Home an ANGEL! REST NOW YOUR RACE IS WON! All my Love and prayers! Margaret (Ratliff) Whited (margaret.whited@hotmail.com)

“ Mom you were my life ..I miss you so much ..we did everything together. How do I go on? Who will I call on my way to work every morning? I know you wouldn't come back but what I would give if you could. I love you to the moon and back. Your wise words will forever remain with me as I learn how to go on without you. You will live through me and your grandchildren. Please rest now. See you soon ..I love you
