“ To Larry and all of Shirley's family.

No words can speak for your loss but always remember to keep Shirley close to your heart. The whole Kinder family is like family to me. I have known all of you for such a long time.

Shirley has will be missed at work.

My prayers and thoughts go to all of you through this tough time.

“ My sincere sympathy is with each of you. Shirley's days on this earth were better for having a wonderful family like you. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Cherish the memories of the good days and know that she is in heaven now with no sickness. If I can help in any way just give me a call.

Love and prayers,

Carol

“ Jenn and Megan

I am so sorry. There aren't any words that can express how sorry I am. Please know that you are in my prayers. You will never stop missing or loving your mom but in time dealing with the pain will become easier. Just keep all of your memories of Shirley close to your heart which I know you will. I love you both! Myra

“ Wayne and girls,
How very sorry we are to hear about Shirley. But imagine how wonderful she feels now. No pain and at home with her Mom and Dad. We pray that the Lord will place His loving arms around you and guide you safely through this most difficult time. I am so sorry that I am unable to be there to give you my condolences in person. I am in Radford babysitting for our granddaughter. But know that you are indeed in my thoughts and prayers.
In His Love,
Sharon
