“ Wanted you to know you are in my prayers. Take care of yourselves. Let me know if I can do anything. Would love to see you tonight but I committed to fix dinner for my neighbors, the 55 year old father and cook died of cancer last Thursday. I couldn't go see them at the time because of John's surgery so I said I would cook tonight. Love, Deb

“ In a family as loving and large as the Cooper's, I have always been honored that as a friend of Sabrina's, I was welcome. I only met Shirley a few times but it meant so much to me that she took the time to come to my graduation and to send a card when I got married. Sabrina is like a sister to me, and I love her and her family. I'll keep you in my prayers.

“ Dearest Troy and Family...
I am so sorry to hear of your precious loss. I know how you are feeling and I realize how "overwhelmed" you are feeling right now. Please know my heart is aching for you and you are all in my heart and mind during this time. There is so much I would like to say but now is not the time, but I will tell God.... he knows and understands. Call me when and if you need me..... I am here for any of you.
Remember you are not alone!
Love and Prayers,
Jacki
