“ Chelsea,

I just wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers, I know this is a very hard time for you, no one can tell you how you should handle this tragic loss in your life, you are still very young and life don't seem to be fair that you should have to deal with this at this time in your life. If there is anything I can do to help you in anyway, please let me know, I'll do whatever I can to help you, I don't have the answers but I will listen if you need someone to talk to. Your Dad was a special guy in his own way, no one really understood him I don't think and he made alot of choices in his life that most of us will never understand, but the choices he made were his, he loved you in his own way. You have a big Family who loves you and you can count on us to be here for you in anyway. God Bless you and keep you and give you the strength you need now. Love ya alot. Your cousin Debbie, Jeff, Jeremy and Heather Wilson

“ Steve,
I will never forget you. Even though we had not seen each other in years, I have never forgotten the times we had growing up, when you would visit our house.
