Susie will be missed by all who knew her. Heaven gained another angel Wednesday night. Susie loved her church and her church family she loved going to church and missed it when she got sick and couldn't go .She would always ask me about the service and who was there and if they prayed for her. I will really miss her but I know she is in a better place and that she is not suffering because these past two years she has really suffered but she didn't complain much. She was one of a kind but you had to know her to understand her she had a lot of love to give but didn't know how to show it and was a lot of fun to be around. Susie rest in peace you deserve it and I will meet you in heaven and I'll always love you. Your Niece Anita
