

Terry Alvin Shortt

September 22, 1948 - April 27, 2025

Terry Alvin Shortt, age 76, of Richlands, Virginia, passed away on Sunday, April 27, 2025 at his home.

Terry was born on September 22, 1948, in Washington D.C., and was the son of the late Ellis Shortt, Sr. and Irene Brown Shortt. He was a machinist before moving to the area to work in the coal mines. He was a member of UMWA Local Number 2232. After coming out of the coal mines, he remained involved in his local union continuing to help his local union to fight for the miners. He enjoyed going to gun shows and flea markets to look at the treasures and to socialize. He also enjoyed riding his motorcycle and working outside in his yard and home. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his grandson, Jake C. Horn; and brother, Ellis Shortt, Jr.

He is survived by:

His Wife, Tammy Fisher Shortt

Daughters:

Sherrie Horn and husband, Scott of Hollywood, MD

Amanda Shortt of Richlands, VA

Stepson, Jimmy Fisher of PA

Great Grandchildren: Leighton Horn and Ella Shores

Furry Grandson, Buddy

The family wishes to extend their heartfelt gratitude to Ultra Hospice Care for the care and compassion they gave him. It will never be forgotten.

A special thank you to Sandy Mash and Tina Sheppard for also helping with his care, and all the love you all showed him.
