“ I remember my Granny very well and I'm sorry she had to go home and leave us. She was my friend most of all when no one else was there. She taught me many things about life and what was truly important. I miss her greatly and think of her when I'm canning and gardening, but I'm thankful for the wisdom of the old ways which she passed to me. David

“ Dear Family, I just found out about Sister Thelma's passing and was saddened to hear about it. I went to church with her for numerous years and she truly loved the Lord letting her light shine bright. May God comfort your hearts now and in the days to come as only he can do.
