“ I met these two wonderful people about 50 years ago. I have wonderful memories of Claytor Lake and Richlands that I'll always cherish.

Hun always had a story to tell. I was always ready to hear what his latest adventure had been.

Juanita was precious. Loving, caring, uplifting and always positive and encouraging. I loved being around her.

The two had an amazing love for each other. And a strong love for their Lord and Saviour. I wasn't surprised to hear God called them home together.

I lost both my parents last year 3 months apart. It's been extremely hard.

To the Shelton and Steele families and friends, prayers being said for each of you.
