“ I've known Tim his whole life, Watched him grow up to be a very handsome, kind, and sweet young man. I haven't got to be around him much after Bill and I left the Keen mountain bakery but thought of him and Ina Gay often. Connie I never have meet you but everything I have heard was always good. The most important thing in His life was he gave His heart to our Lord and savior and one day we can all be together again...there will be rough days ahead but God will be right by your side. Stay strong Ina Gay it won't be much longer till we can have that family reunion that us as Christians have been longing for. R.I.P until we meet again! Shirley Davis Shortridge

“ Me & my family also had known Tim for our whole lives . He was a great person, he will be missed greatly. There's no words that can help all the family & friends with their grief God is . All of you do your best, keep going forward with God helping you every step of the way..Hate you're going through this. You all will be in my thoughts & prayers..Tim would joke around too, he would talk every time me or my family saw him , he never changed.
