“ My heart goes out to the family I have known Timothy all my life from young sweethearts in middle school to dating off and on as we got older. He was always good to me he treated me like a queen. I will always have a special place in my heart for him, you will be greatly missed. I love you and always will nothing no one can say or do to change that. He was one of kind. My heart goes out to his parents Mike and Linda and both sisters Melissa and Stephanie. I ask that God put his arms around all his family and comfort them in days to come. I love you all. Rip Timothy .
