“ Karen, Taylor, Revi and Shawna
I wish I had magical healing words but I don't have words to make it better. I was so shocked when I got the news and my heart breaks for you all. I can not even imagine the pain you are experiencing right now. I can't seem to wrap my head around this devastating loss. The only comfort we have is this, He is just across the tide waiting preparing for one day to see you again. Just as he left here if we stay ready, we will see him again. Karen my prayers are for you and your family I am daily praying that God will comfort, strengthen and give you peace. Years pass and we lose touch with old friends but know that if you need anything I will be there for you in any way I can. Tim I know was a wonderful husband, Father, grandfather and Friend. When I think of him I can still see that smile. I don't think I ever saw him that he was not smiling. Though the days will be hard cling to the good times the memories and happy times to pull you through. Turn to your friends when you need a shoulder to cry on and let them help pull you through. Taylor I know the loss of a Dad and when the time is hard and I long to see my Dad I remember the happy times the stories he would tell. I cling to the knowledge that someday after while I'll see him again in a place far better than this and you will your Dad too. Prayers for all the family.... May God Bless and Keep you in the coming days.

“ God places people in our lives for a reason. We know without a shadow of a doubt that the Meadows family were placed in our lives to show us the power of God’s love. You see there wasn’t a time in the past 15 years that we can remember not being able to call upon them for help, support, prayer, love, and friendship!! Tim touched so many people in such a short time. He was and will always be a light to our lives. Praying for peace and strength during this difficult time. We love you all!!

“ Tim was one of a kind if all men could be like him this world would be a better place, he would help anyone at anytime no matter how it inconvenient him, he was a wonderful husband and father and now a grandfather I loved to watch how his face would light up talking about Revi , he wasn't just a friend to us their whole family was like ours, Tim was like a brother to gary and they would stay on the phone for hours and hardly missed a day without talking, we love and are going to miss you so much, now go rest high on that mountain Tim , missed but never will we forget you..
