

Tony Allen Thompson

May 28, 1953 - July 14, 2017

Tony Allen Thompson, age 64 of Tazewell, VA died Friday, July 14, 2017 at his home surrounded by his wife and family. He was born May 28, 1953 at Tazewell, VA and was a son of Annie Elizabeth Kitts Thompson of Tazewell, VA and the late Richard Elmore Thompson. Tony was a hard worker; he started working on the J.K. Short Dairy Farm when he was in the sixth grade. He worked there until he became a Distributive Education Student in high school and began working at the former Greever Hardware and Greever Funeral Home. He spent a lot of time on the farm in Tannersville with his friend, Mike. He showed Roadster Ponies for seven years. Tony was a Tazewell High School Graduate, Class of 1972. When the Greever family sold the hardware store and funeral home, Tony went to work for Carbide Tool for a short time then he changed careers and began working for Abbs Valley Electric as a motor assembler. Tony then worked for over twenty years at Southern Electric and Machine Company (SEMCO) in Narrows, before his battle with cancer forced his retirement. Tony was a New York Yankees Fan and Pittsburg Steelers Fan and was the proud owner of his own "Terrible Towel", but the towel he was most proud of was the one his minister gave him when he was baptized with "Servant" embroidered on it along with a Certificate of Baptism. Tony was a member of Chestnut Grove Christian Church and was a true servant of God; he loved studying the Lord's Word and leading the Church in the opening service on the first Sunday of the month and tried to make every Church function. He loved his family dearly, praying that one day they would find God and His love for them and the joy of being in His service. In the summer of 2016, during their 40th Wedding Celebration, Tony asked his wife, Christine Cook Thompson, to marry him again; she accepted. Tony was the best husband, son, brother and friend anyone could have and he will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

An addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his sister-in-law, Kathy Sargent Thompson; several uncles; aunts; cousins.

In addition to his mother, Ann Thompson and companion, Dexter Keen, those who survive to cherish his memory include his loving wife of forty-one years, Christine Cook Thompson; his brother, Terry Wayne Thompson and fiancé, Karen McKinney; his sister, Barbara Lester and husband, Roscoe, both of Tazewell, VA; brothers-in-law, Herman Cook and wife, Helen and Rick Cook and wife, Sheila; nephews, T.J. Thompson and companion, Brittany Tucci, Jeffrey Thompson and wife, Beth, Colton Cook and wife, Lauren; nieces, Amanda Zivic and husband, Michael, Olivia Keffer and husband, Ross, Mabelle Cook and Bridget Cook; great nieces and nephews, twins: Landon and Lillyana Thompson, Kaine Cook, Braylen Locke, Aarilynn Locke, Jackson and Kensington Zivic; his fur babies that he loved and took such special care of, Buddy, Blue and Mia (itty bitty purity kitty), several aunts; several loved cousins and many other family members and friends also survive.

“ Hard to Believe that Tony is gone. But So Happy he was active in church and now driving his Road Pony on streets of gold! I knew him for over 50 years and a big part of my childhood was shared with him and his family. He was one of the original "Dog Road" kids and I remember working with him in the hayfields for 50 cents/hour at the old "Poor Farm". May God wrap his arms around him and Christine, and All the family and give them peace. See you later My Friend.

“ My cousin Tony was the sweetest guy. He would take us riding around when we would come up to Virginia from Texas for vacation when we were little. He gave me a prayer cross when my dad passed away in December last year. I will think of him when I hold onto it. He will always have a special place in my heart. I love you and until we meet again see ya later. Tammy Berkstresser Forney Texas
