“ My deepest sympathy to the, family. I knew Trancy when we worked at Coppinger Machinery in Bluefield, WV. We talked on the phone several times and we recently discussed about going to the Sterling Drive In located in, Welch.

Alas, I regret that never happened.

“ Trancy was a good man , I worked with Trancy at WVa Armature from 1970 to 1982 , We used to set around and talk about old times and life ,that was when Trancy would leave on friday nights and drive to Myrtle Beach and be back to work monday night , That was a drive but he enjoyed it I will be praying for his family ,I know you all will miss him.
A good friend.
