I remember himd as a fine young man, wonderful football and basketball player. May God be with all of you during this time. God leaves us with memories when he takes our loved ones home. Toy is just beyond the sunset. He will always been your heart. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I have known Troy since 1947 when we were first graders at the old TMI building on Garden Creek. Our teacher's name was Anna Jean Blankenship. Second grade we had a Mrs. Keene and Mrs. Lou Wolfe was our third grade teacher. It was a wonderful time in our lives, so care free. Troy was a very nice person and I am glad we had those happy young years at TMI. God bless you all at this time of sadness!
